Re: United States v. Ricky Lynch
Criminal Docket No. 21-405 (S-1) (GRB)

Dear Judge Brown:

We write to respectfully submit the Sentencing Memorandum on behalf of Mr. Ricky Lynch, who stands before this Court for sentencing following his recent conviction. This memorandum aims to provide the Court with a comprehensive understanding of Mr. Lynch's background, the circumstances of the case, and the compelling factors that warrant your consideration in determining an appropriate sentence.

In this document, we will discuss Mr. Lynch's personal history, his character, the offense for which he was convicted, and the factors that should mitigate the severity of the sentence he receives.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 12, 2023, the defendant in this case, Ricky Lynch, agreed to plead guilty to Count Six of the Superseding Indictment, which alleged false statements, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1001(a)(2). This occurred on the second day of the jury trial for the above captioned case. Based on Mr. Lynch's sworn statements, the Court dismissed the jury and accepted his plea.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

The imposition of a federal sentence is governed by 18 U.S.C. §3553. 18 U.S.C. §3553(a) states that "The court shall impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary." Further, it states that "The court, in determining the particular sentence to be imposed, shall consider (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant." 18 U.S.C. §3553(a)(1). Furthermore, Pepper v. United States states that "although a sentencing court must "give respectful consideration to the Guidelines, Booker permits the court to tailor the sentence in light of other statutory concerns as well...Accordingly, although the guidelines should be the starting point and the initial benchmark', district courts may impose sentences within statutory limits based on appropriate consideration of all the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a), subject to appellate review for "reasonableness". Kimbrough v. United States, 552 U.S. 85. See also, Gall v. United States, 553 U.S. 38.

According to 18 U.S.C. §3553(a)(2), the need for the sentence imposed must (A) reflect the seriousness of the offense, to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the offense; (B), to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct (C) to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and (D) to provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner. 18 U.S.C. §3553(a)(2).

In considering the appropriate sentence for Mr. Ricky Lynch, we respectfully submit that a non-custodial sentence aligns with the principles outlined in 18 U.S.C. §3553 and serves the interests of justice in this particular case.

III. OFFENSE CONDUCT

In January of 2020, Mr. Ricky Lynch, operating under his company, Bright Lights Supreme Cleaning, undertook the task of lead-based paint remediation at a residential property in Freeport. In this endeavor, Mr. Lynch faced challenges related to certification, as his prior interim certification that he had obtained for this type of work had lapsed. The circumstances surrounding the project necessitated the presence of an individual with valid certification from the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to oversee the remediation efforts. Mr. Lynch proceeded to personally undertake the remediation work without a certified supervisor present, as mandated by EPA regulations. Mr. Lynch then, in communications with the EPA, made inaccurate claims regarding the presence of a supervisor during the project.

While acknowledging this aspects, it is important to recognize Mr. Lynch's commitment to addressing the remediation needs, albeit in the absence of a proper certification. His actions, although falling short of regulatory compliance, reflect an earnest endeavor to fulfill the obligations of the project. As we navigate this complexities, we invite the court to consider the broader context in which Mr. Lynch's actions transpired and to appreciate his genuine intent to contribute positively, albeit under challenging circumstances.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

In the matter before this honorable court, the defendant, Mr. Ricky Lynch, is before you as a multifaceted individual of considerable standing within his community. As an entrepreneur and business-owner, Mr. Lynch has demonstrated commitment and dedication in his professional endeavors. Moreover, his active engagement at the Saint Paul Community Baptist Church underscores a strong moral and community oriented foundation.

It is crucial that the court take cognizance of Mr. Lynch's health conditions, as he is a chronically ill individual grappling with severe kidney issues. The challenges posed by his health condition significantly impact his daily life and it is crucial to weigh these health considerations when determining an appropriate and just sentence.

In addition to his professional and health-related aspects, Mr. Lynch is unequivocally a family man. His devotion to his family is evidence through his actions and responsibilities, underscoring the significance of familial ties in his life. This facet of Mr. Lynch's character is an integral component of the broader context within which he functions.

As this court deliberates on the sentencing of Mr. Ricky Lynch, we respectfully submit that a comprehensive understanding of his identity, encompassing his roles as a business owner, church-goer, chronically ill individual, and family man, is essential for a fair and just resolution in this matter.

V. MITIGATING FACTORS

In considering the factors that contribute to an equitable and just sentence for Mr. Ricky Lynch, it is imperative to underscore the profound impact of his severe kidney problems on both his daily life and overall well-being.

Mr. Lynch's health challenges are not merely incidental but constitute a critical aspect of the mitigating circumstances surrounding this case. His severe kidney problem impose significant limitations on his physical capabilities, affecting not only his personal life, but also his ability to contribute meaningfully to society. It is with great concern that we bring to the court's attention the severity of Mr. Lynch's health conditions, as documented by medical professionals. According to expert assessments, Mr. Lynch's prognosis indicates a limited life expectancy.

In light of Mr. Lynch's health circumstances, we respectfully submit that a compassionate consideration of these mitigating factors should inform the court's sentencing decision.

VI. SENTENCING OPTIONS

In advocating for a fair and balanced resolution for Mr. Ricky Lynch, we earnestly request the court's thoughtful consideration of alternative sentencing options that align with the principles outlined in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a). Recognizing the gravity of the offense, we submit that a punitive approach, solely in the form of incarceration, may not best serve the interests of justice in this case.

Probation stands as a viable alternative that would allow Mr. Lynch to remain within the community while adhering to court-imposed conditions. This approach would foster rehabilitation and accountability without imposing the severe impact of incarceration on an individual grappling with significant health challenges.

Given Mr. Lynch's health condition, home confinement emerges as a compassionate alternative that balances accountability with the unique circumstances he faces. This measure would enable him to fulfill any obligations imposed by the court while maintaining a supportive environment for his ongoing medical needs.

A tailored community service program could also provide Mr. Lynch with an alternative to incarceration while allowing him to make meaningful amends to society. By contributing positively to the community, he can demonstrate a commitment to restitution and rehabilitation, fostering a sense of responsibility and engagement.

In presenting these alternative sentencing options, our intent is not to diminish the seriousness of the offense, but rather to advocate for a sentencing approach that reflects the principles of proportionality and individualized justice. We believe that a judicious consideration of these alternatives would better serve both the interests of justice and the unique circumstances surrounding Mr. Lynch's case.

VII. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, when contemplating the suitable sentence for Mr. Ricky Lynch, we respectfully propose that a sentence without custody aligns with the principles delineated in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a) and upholds the interests of justice in this specific case. This is due to Mr. Ricky Lynch's community ties, familial connections, health conditions, and business connections.

Re: Character Reference for Rickey Lynch
No. 21-Cr-405

Dear Judge Brown:

I hope this letter finds you in good health. I am writing to "vouch" for the character of my cousin, Rickey Lynch, who is currently facing a false statement to EPA official's. I believe it is crucial for you to understand Rickey Lynch truly is beyond the confines of the court. I have known my cousin for forty seven years and in that time, I have come to know him as compassionate, and hardworking, even though he has Kidney damage, with a very short life ahead of him. I would have to give my cousin, Rickey Lynch credit, he was release in 2014, and thereafter, started his own family cleaning company, after know one would hire him, because he has a non- violent felony record, supported his family, even friends. My cousin Rickey, really did not have any real problems with the law, since the incident known to me above. He has remorse and regret that he even did such a stupid act as this. Although, he been around the bush, however, he did something positive that surprise me and family, he started his own business, paid his taxes like the rest of us, and has support his family, and a church going person, which I am not, meaning that I have never been in trouble with the law, or go to church as my cousin, Rickey Lynch does, I am respectfully, asking this court for leniency towards my cousin, Rickey Lynch, and the hardship, due to his illness of kidney disease, and to spare him of his sentencing day for he can spend Thanksgiving for the last time with his family, before his time passes.

Thank You, your Honor, for your time in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Jeffrey Watkins, Cousin

Dear Judge Brown:

I'm a retired attorney who spent my entire career in criminal law... First, as a Prosecutor with Kings County District Attorney's Office and then as a partner at a White-Collar Federal defense firm in Suffolk County, New York.

I've tried cases ranging from simple drug possessions to death-penalty eligible homicides (Name is not important for security reasons). I met Mr. Rickey Lynch, (A very smart individual in regards to his work, in his company), in which he done a very professional job at my house and family house in regards to replacing five thousand square feet of ceramic floor tiles, and hardwood flooring, at the best price, that's around (I check through various contractors) through the internet, which I met Mr. Lynch

I believe that a person in Mr. Lynch caliber deserve a "second chance" in life, especially, in such a case like this. While our Friendship and professional live overlap, I'll add that as a friend, Mr Lynch has been alway to me and others family members, loyal and honest in regards to his work, through these current problems, which he has address to me, the pain it has cost him, and his family and remorse upon this Honorable Court, that was time consuming for such action.

Thank You.

Re: Rickey Lynch Sr.

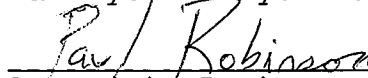

Dear Judge Brown; this letter is to inform and support the case of Rickey Lynch, who is an active member of our church and participates in activities of our community. I have known Mr. Lynch since I joined the church in February 2007, and would like to affirm that he is a good, faithful, and reliable husband and father of his family. Rickey Lynch, who is kind and sincere person, participates in the Church services, helps with different work activities, and is known and liked by members of our church.

Rickey Lynch and family, attends church every Sundays and also volunteers his time at special events, that our church holds. From June 2023 to August 2023, Mr. Lynch also helped teach Bible study to the children of our church, thanks to his vast knowledge of the Bible that stems from years of worship.

Though the circumstances under which Mr. Lynch came to at this time, we are, and will be grateful to have Mr. Lynch as part of our church and for church to bear witness to Mr. Lynch's journey here to safety, a great example of difficulties, love and faith in God and our church is very visible and present in all he does.

Sincerely,

Thank you for your assistance
